

DEMONSTRATION NOTICE

U.S. Embassy
La Paz, Bolivia

September 21, 2011
9:29 AM

The U.S. Embassy in La Paz has received information about blockades causing fuel shortage in the city of La Paz:

On September 19, 2011, local residents initiated a blockade of the only gas refinery plant in the La Paz area. As of 1500, on September 20, 2011, the blockades are continuing. It is anticipated that within the next 12-24 hours, if the blockades continue, that the gas stations in the La Paz area will be without gasoline and other petroleum products. U.S. citizens are advised to monitor local news regarding this situation.

U.S. citizens are reminded of the following emergency preparedness advice and directives:

- Maintain an adequate supply of food, water, medicines, and any other necessary items for your family on hand in your home.
- Fill your vehicle with gas and avoid letting it get below half tank.
- Avoid areas where roadblocks and demonstrations are occurring and do not attempt to run blockades.
- U.S. citizens are advised to monitor the local media.

Be alert and aware of your surroundings and pay attention to what the local news media has to say. Please note that the police have limited capabilities outside major cities and communication is poor.
